imagination and creativity as you play!

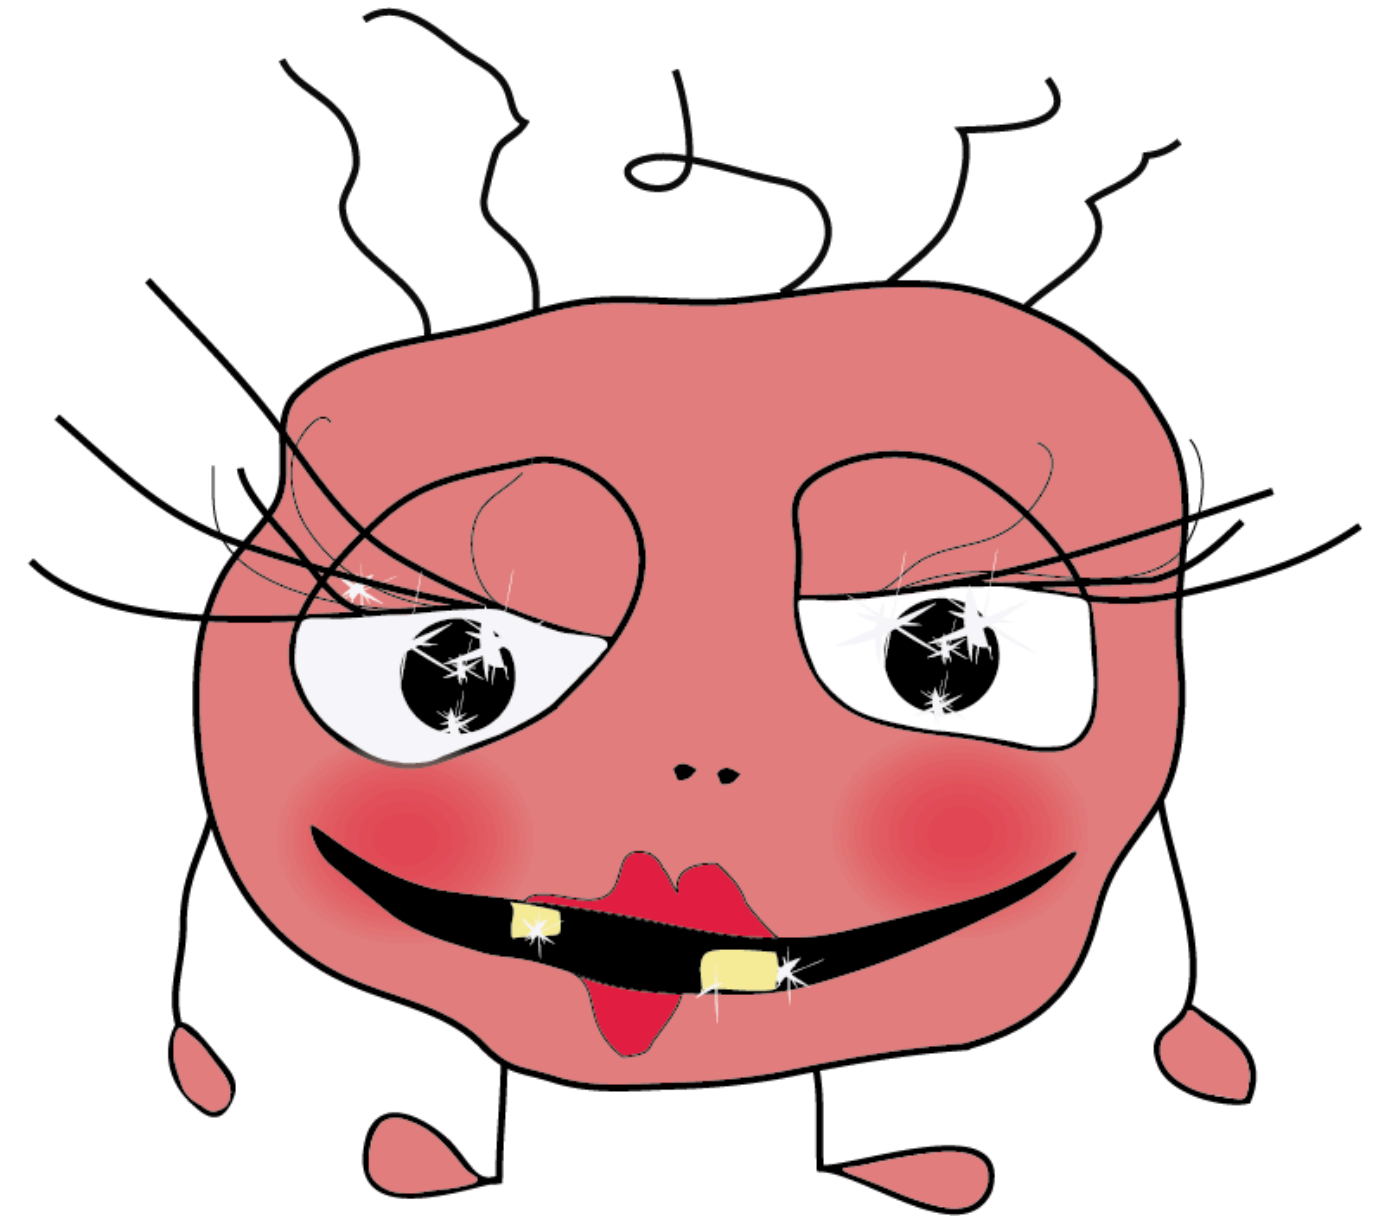

Meet Heart BUG

When Heart Bug shows up, people get extra loving. They want to hug. Say kind things. Show care for no reason.

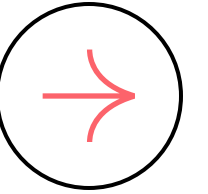

It can be sent as a gift from one person to another, an invisible love package that bridges any distance.

If no one nearby is showing love, Heart Bug fades and turns nearly invisible. It needs love just as much as it gives it.

Heart Bugs super power is the Love Wave.

Meet Candy Bug

Candy Bug runs on sugar highs and loves to share, even though it sometimes takes a little more than it should. Every Saturday morning it wakes up with a fresh plan in its head.

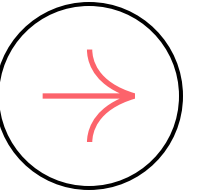

When Candy Bug shows up, everyone nearby gets an irresistible craving for something sweet. No one knows why. It just happens.

After a big sugar wave, Candy Bug suddenly falls asleep, mid-everything, anywhere.

Candy Bugs superpower is the Sugar Wave.

Meet Tease Bug

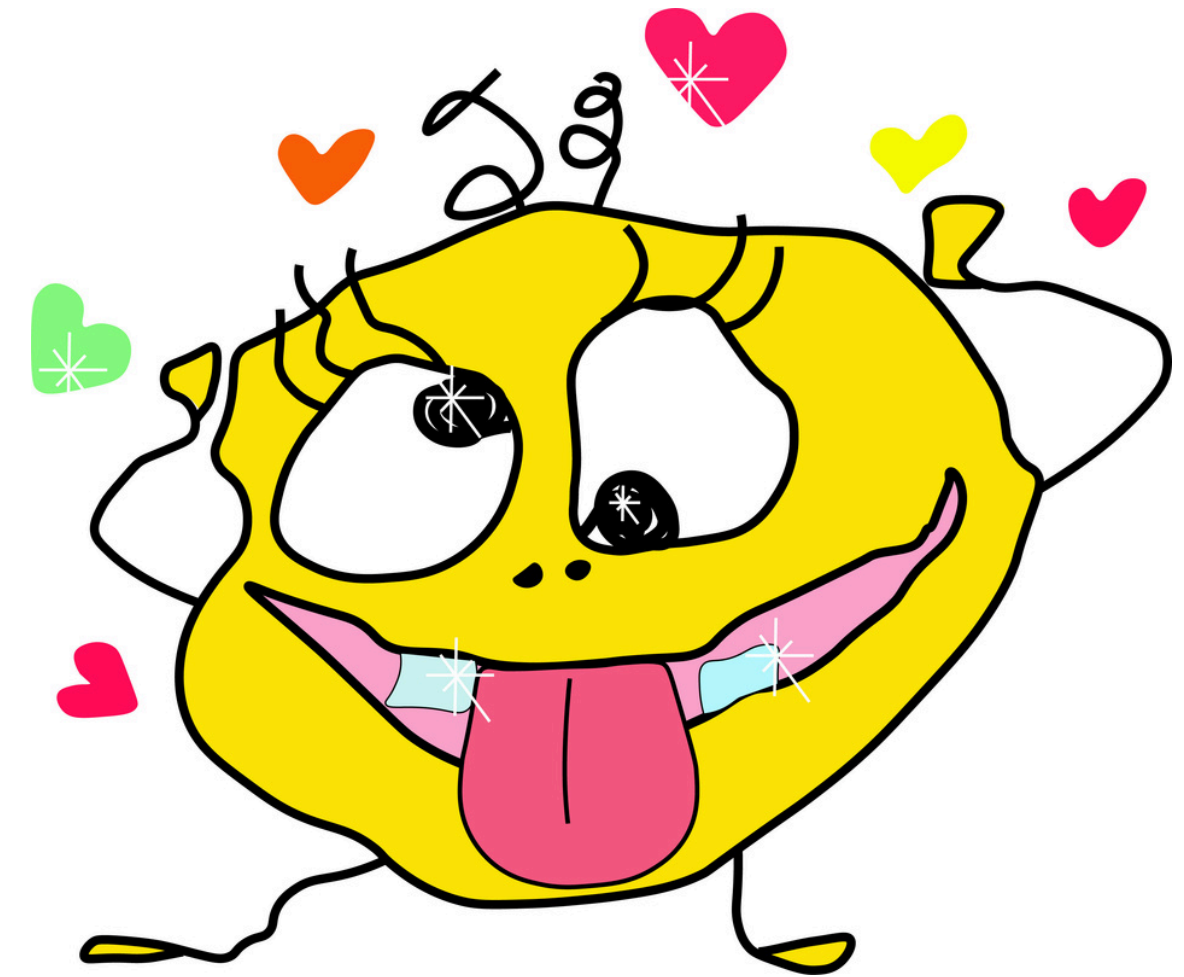

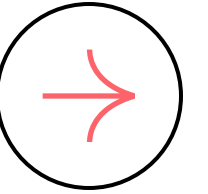

Tease Bug teases the ones it loves. It can't help it. That's just how it shows it cares. Teases everyone without blinking, but goes completely speechless if someone teases back.

Pops up and teases people in absolutely the wrong places. At grandma's dinner, when dad is trying to focus, or in the middle of an important match.

Tease Bugs super power is the MISCHIEF MOVE.

Meet Smiley Bug

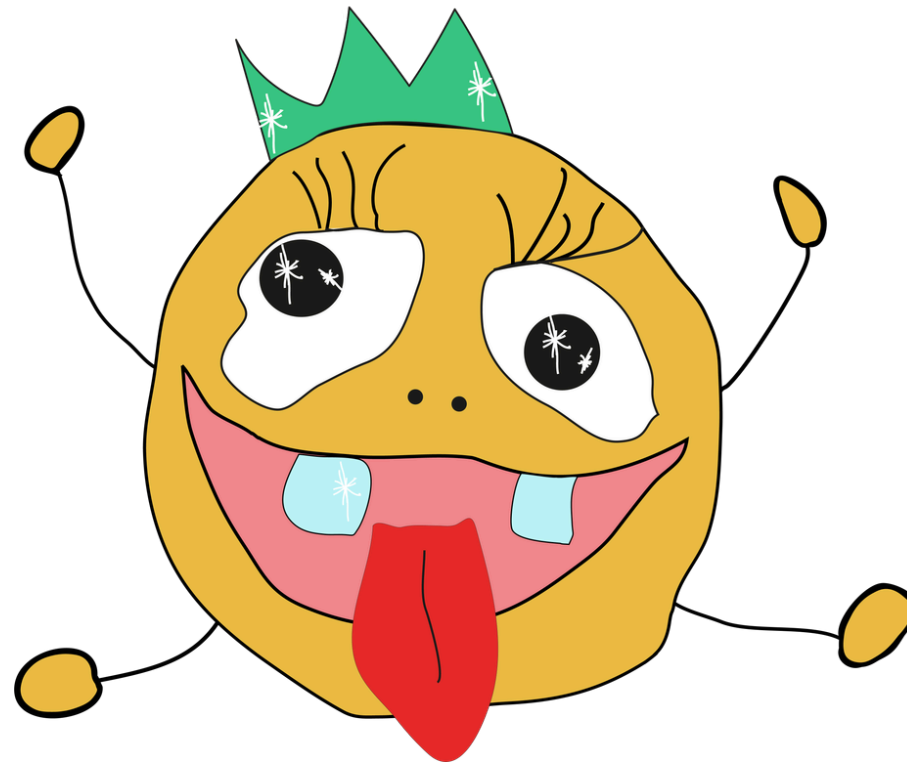

When Smiley Bug shows up, everyone catches the joy. Smiles spread like ripples on water. Laughter bubbles up out of nowhere. Even the grumpiest grown-up can't hold it in.

Smiley Bug needs laughter and smiles to keep itself going. If everyone is too stressed or too busy to smile, it loses energy and shrinks, just like a flower without sunshine.

Smiley Bugs super power is the JOY RUSH

Meet the Disco Bug

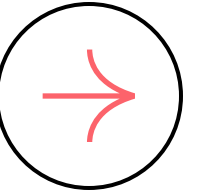

Disco Bug is the heart of the party. It always brings the energy and just can't stop dancing. Not even if it wanted to.

When Disco Bug shows up, everyone nearby gets a sudden, irresistible urge to move. No one knows why. No one can stop it. Feet start tapping, shoulders start swaying, and soon the whole room is dancing.

Disco Bugs super power is the DANCE WAVE.

Meet the Rich Bug

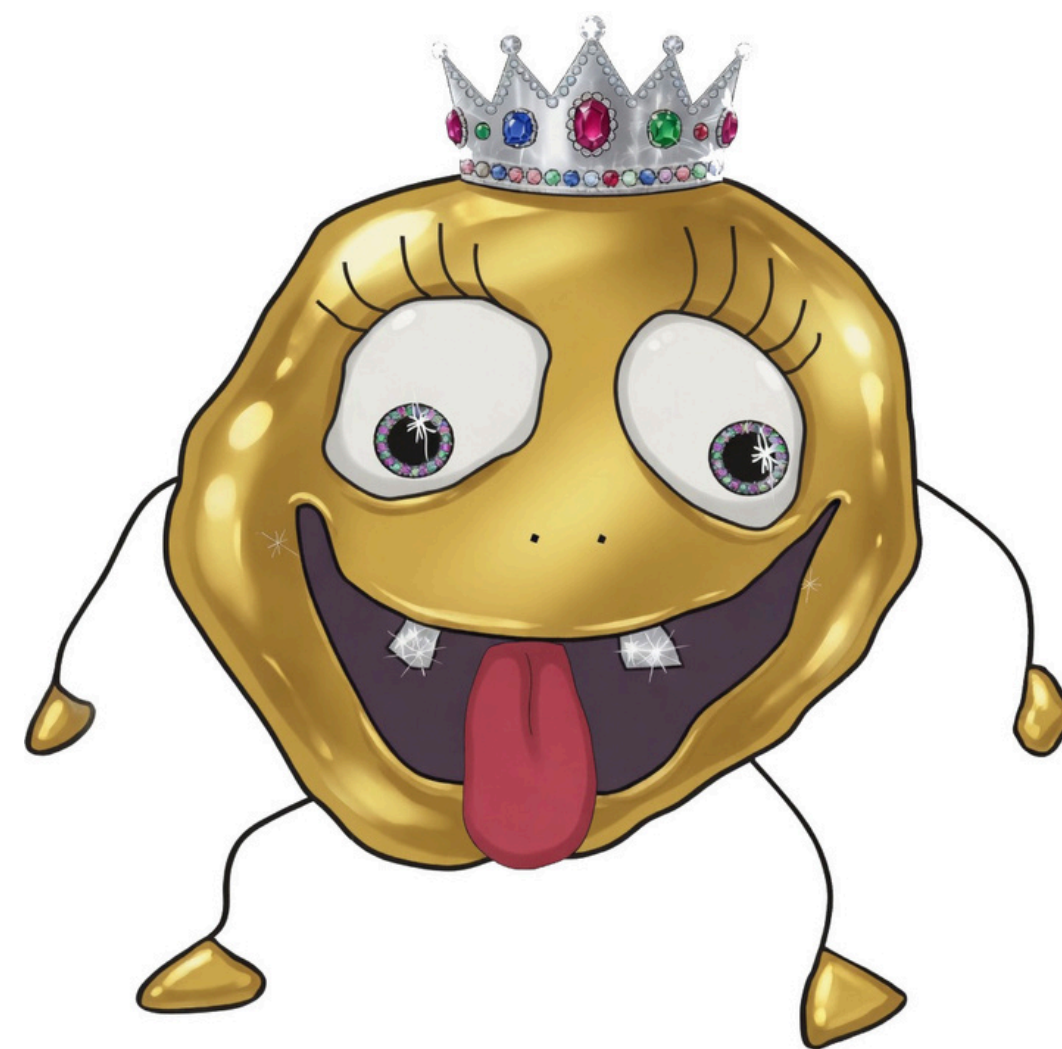

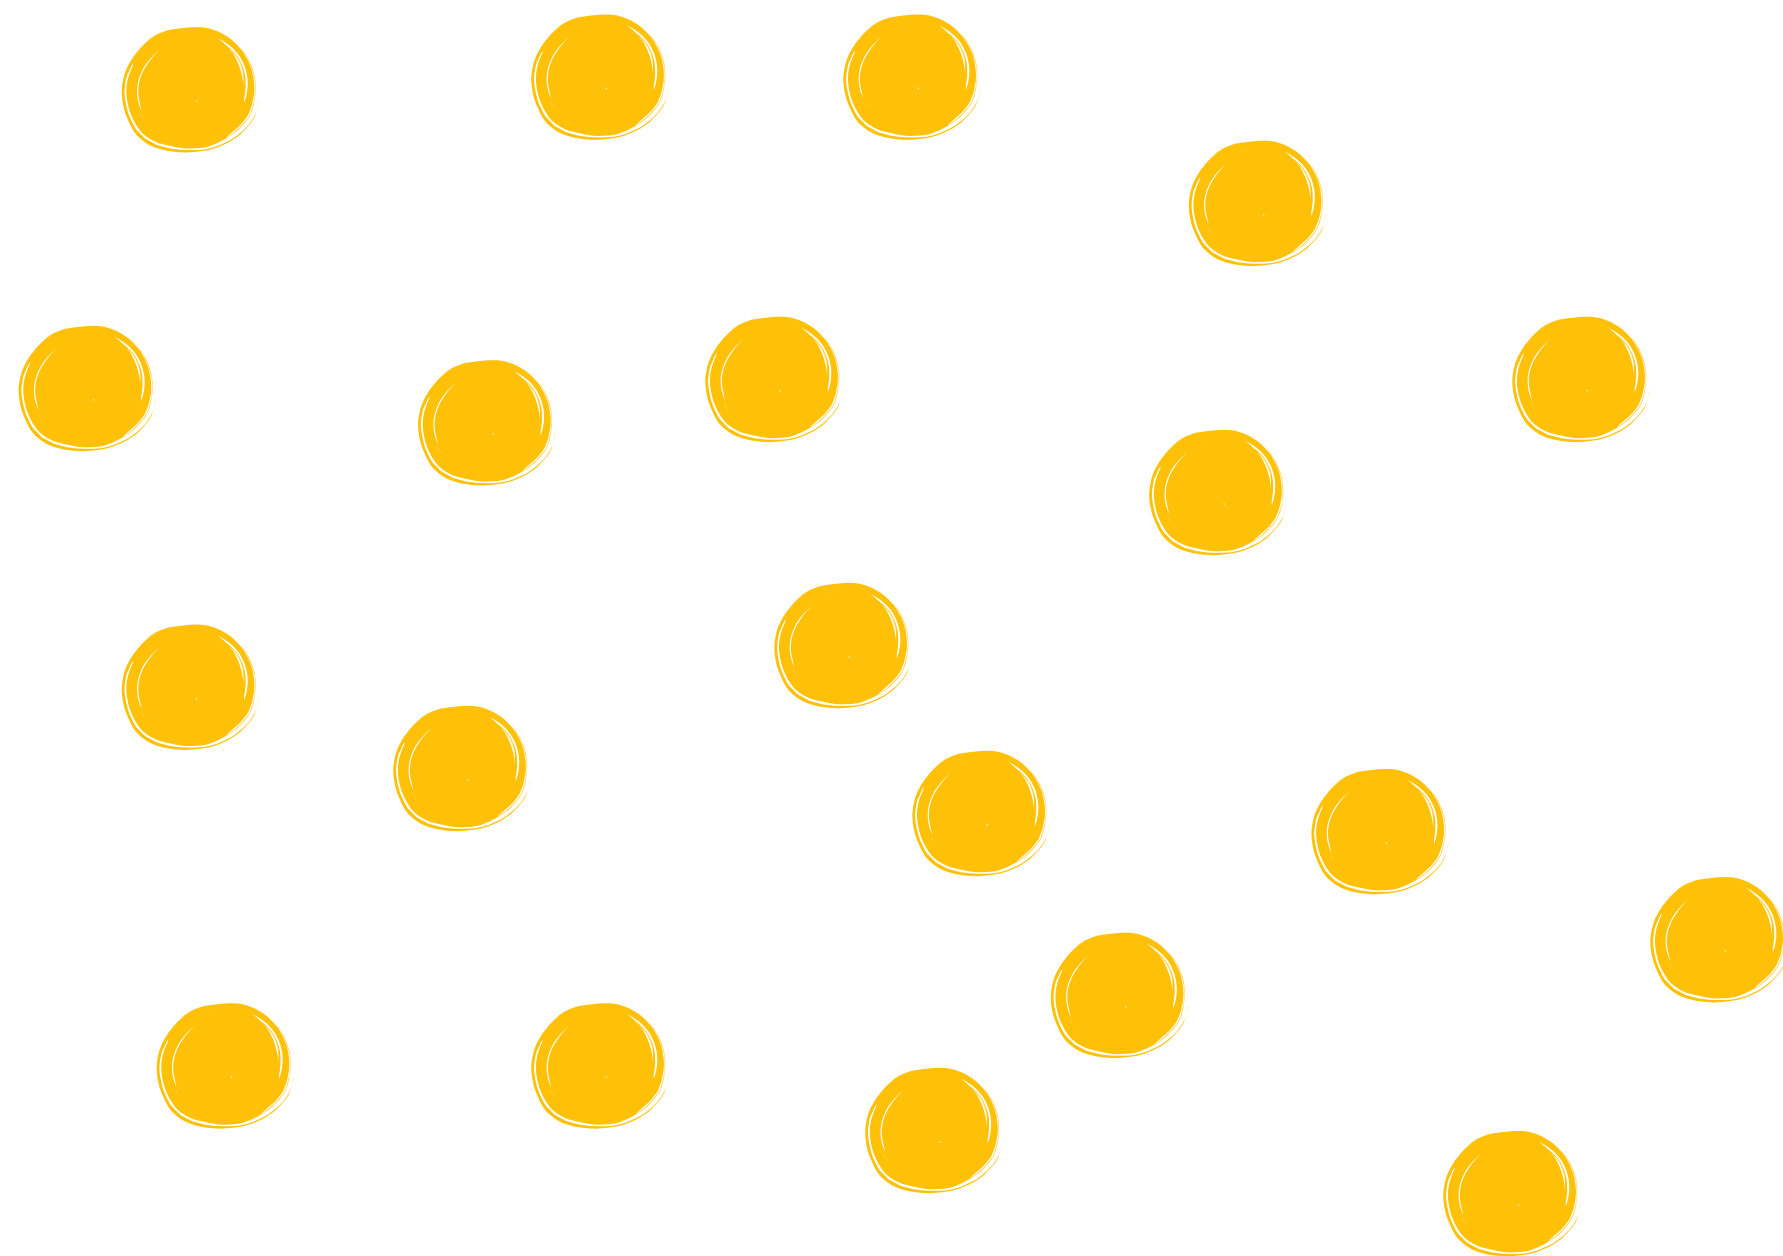

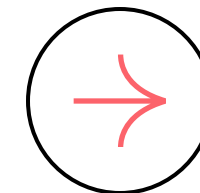

Rich Bug lives in a constant overflow of material wealth. Euphoric, extravagant, and genuinely generous. It understands that giving creates more wealth than holding on.

Doesn't always understand what's truly valuable. It can give away a diamond necklace without blinking but cling to an old sticker because it thinks the sticker is prettier.

Rich Bugs super power is the MONEY RAIN.
